Subject: RE: Town of Croydon

I think the confusion is coming from the fact we do not require permits to demolish buildings. We did have two buildings that burned, 1 in 2009, rebuilt in 2010 and 1 in 2010, started rebuild in 2010. Hope this helps.

Hello Charleen and thank you for returning my call. On your 2010 Dwelling Unit Response Form a notation was made that 2 of the new dwelling units built in 2010 were rebuilds after fires destroyed them. Under the Demolitions column there were no entries to indicate this. I checked your response form from 2009 and noted there were no demolitions listed there. Could you please confirm that the 2 dwelling units were demolished and replaced with the new units? Thank you!
